Account of a Pass to First.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA, July 16.—Barley Kain's Truckers went down in defeat here to-day in an interesting game by the score of 2 to 1. The Tobacconists won in the eighth inning as the result of a free pass preented by Schuman, the twirler for Portsmouth, when three mon were yn bases, Despite the fact that not an earned run was made the same was exciting, and not until the last man was out was it clinched. The visitors led off with the run-making in the third inning. The score made by Tliman was followed up by a stolen base, a sacrifice hit, and an error on part of Danville, in the fifth faming the score was tied as the result of a double by Winston, who won his own same, bringing in Benny from sacond. Up to the eighth inning Schuman had appeared in fairly good form, but the winning run was made in this inning on account of his wildness and the errors by the fielders. Those making the errors by the fielders. Schuman, while allowing only five hits. Schuman, while allowing only five hits, was biffed hard by the locals, and but for the brilliant work of the Portsmouth outfielders the score would have to the famous duck fermouth outfielders the score would have

MIGHTY MOSER BEATEN.

Norfolk Wins from Lynchburg in a Pretty Contest.

Noriolk Wins from Lyncholes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK VA., July 16.—In a hottycontested game, the Tercentennials beat the mighty Moser and the balance of the Lynchburg hustling troupe of diamond performers this afternoon. The locals seemed to be the better players in the tight places. The umpire, Newhouse, who was assaulted by a mob in Portsmouth
Saturday afternoon, and was fined file by Justice Peed this morning for the alleged use of bad language to a spectator, officiated at the game. He received an ovation when he walked out on the field to call for play. It seemed to please him. He dealt a square deal,
The few errors of judgment that he may have made were about equally divided between the two teams, Norfolk's chance to win the game came in the third inning, and the boys took it with a vengeance. Benbow led off with a hit. Otey was safe on an error, of Hamilton's. Dingle also got first on an error. Clark hit to Hamilton, who made a become error, and Benbow scored. Jackson then hit for a single, scoring hoth Otey and Dingle, and Clark camephene on a passed ball. With four hits in the sixth inning, three of them scratches, Lynchburg scored but one run. Stuart, the last man no in the inning, struck out, with the ning, three of them sortanes, the last man up in the inning, struck out, with the bases tall. In the seventh, the visitors had three men on bases and none out, but a fast double splay killed their chances. Boore:

STATE FAIR AND RACES

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., July 16.—Two weeks remain before the annual State fair and the summer race meet open under the suspices of the Norfolk Horse Show and suspices of the Norfolk Horse Show and Fair Association.

The announcement was made this week that all of the exhibit space in the large Coliseum Pair and Horse Show building had been disposed of and the exhibits will begin to be assembled in the next wek or ten days. Mr. Wrenn has completed his poultry exhibit.

The principal displays will be made by the Grand Central Fancters' Association, of Pennsylvania, which will have 700 pigeons, pet stock of chickens and water fowl on exhibition at the fair. Two large box cars are required to transfer the exhibit from Carlisle, Pa., where it will be the week before the Norfolk fair, to this city.

Samuel Morgan, of Riverton, Va., proprietor of the famous duck farm, will bring his monster family of ducks, and there will be many rare and costly

there will be many rare and costly varieties.

In addition to the poultry exhibits, there will be live stock, agricultural products, mercantile displays, woman's work and many other features of the fair.

The races will be a stellar attraction this summer. Beginning Tuesday, July 81st, they will extend over four days, and it is anticipated that there will be fully 15s starters. There will be about five events daily and the races will be alvided between trotting, pacing, running and elepischasing, Frank Covington, the well known Norfolk trainer, is secretary of the race meet, and he is in correspondences with a large number of horse owners who contemplate bringing their stables here for the meet, which will open the Virginia-Maryland circuit of tweive tracks.

The purses offered aggregate $5,000.

Berger had the Philadelphian decidedly worried in the two closing rounds. When O'Brien led he would invariably jump in the air and swing his left arm around Berger's neck, the evident intention being to tire his heavy opponent. When the fight ended both men were covered with blood, and the referee's shirt was crimson from his efforts to separate them.

The men entered the ring in perfect condition, and as they had agreed to fight at catch weights, no announcement was made of their respective weights. Berger's manager said that the Californian weighed about 200 pounds, while O'Brien weighed close to 175. No decision is allowed in the bouts in this city, but it seemed to be the consensus of opinion that O'Brien had a slight advantage. Berger, however, surprised the spectators by his cleverness and also his gameness. Fight by Rounds.

Pirst round-O'Brien had all the advan-tage, and landed almost at will. His foot-work seemed to dastle Berger, but as the round progressed the Californian im-round progressed the Californian improved, Second round—Berger opened a gash in O'Brien's left eye, and Jack had Berger bleeding freely from the nose. Both were covered with blood as they went to their corners. The round was slightly in O'Brien's favor.

Third round—Berger opened up the cut over the left eye, and in turn O'Brien had Berger's left eye almost closed.

Fourth round—This was the most vicious round of the battle and honors were evenly divided. Up to this time the fight had been one of the fastest witnessed between big men in this city.

Fifth round—O'Brien had the advantage in this round. He repeatedly had had the latter tired at the gons.

Sixth round—O'Brien had a slight advantage in the closing round. He led repeatedly, but his blows did nor have sufficient force behind them.

Berger was cheered vociferously as he left the ring.

the tables on Still to-day, winning his game by a score of 2 to 0. The game was a good, clean exhibition, but one error being made by the two teams, and that was excussable. Still was wild for the first two innings, after which he settled down and pitched good ball. Willis had good control, and did good work for the locals. Richmond had several chances to score, especially in the ninth, when a hit each by Cuddy filled the bases. A hit by Cowan would have tied the score. He hit a long one to Brown in center field, however, and the game was over. The work of Umpire was good this being
